CONSTITUTION POLICY

1. The Dalhousie Student Union Constitution, herein referred to as the "Constitution," shall consist of the following documents:
  - (a) The Dalhousie Student Union Act, 1968 and
  - (b) The By-laws of the Dalhousie Student Union
2. Hard copies of the Constitution shall be available to the membership upon request.
3. An electronic version of the Constitution must be available on the DSU website at all times.
4. In the event of amendments to the By-laws, the President is directed to deposit the following documents with the Union's legal counsel within three (3) weeks of such amendments or revisions having been approved:
  - (a) a copy of the draft minutes of the meeting during which said amendments or revisions occurred;
  - (b) a copy of the revised Constitution; and
  - (c) a letter attesting to the authenticity of said changes and that the amendments were made in compliance with the Bylaws, signed by the President, one other Officer of the Union, the Chair of Council and the Recording Secretary.
5. Only copies of the Constitution that are certified by the Union's legal counsel and the Officers, shall be considered to be true copies of the Constitution.
