Whereas Dalhousie students past and present have served in various combat missions on behalf of the Canadian government;

Whereas those in uniform past and present include members of multiple marginalized groups;

Whereas the Dalhousie Student Union does not speak on behalf of its members who served in uniform during conflicts; nor on behalf of marginalized group members who did so while engaged in missions overseas;

Be it resolved that the Dalhousie Student Union shall not exploit for partisan purposes the experiences of certain servicemen and women, living or dead, while negating the experiences of others whose lived experience is deemed irrelevant
